

HEREAS there hath been for some Time past, W Quantities of Water not only dispersed about the Kingdom of Great-Britain, but exported to Parts beyond Sea, under the Name of BRISTOL HOT-WELL-WATER, to the great Imposition on the Publick, as well as Injury to the Reputation of the True BRISTOL WATER: THIS is theretore to Advertise, that the said Water, which is filled from the only antient and original Spring, is now sealed with the Names of SMITH and WOODALL, as described in the Margin; and that no other Water is ever filled by Us.
